Fisher and Paykel dishwasher, an Emilia gas cooktop/oven and a Westinghouse range hood meet an enviable outlook that will capture your imagination at both lunch and dinner. The main sleeping quarters are also nestled upstairs – the highlight of which is a carpeted master ensemble with raked ceilings and split-system air-conditioning of its own, fitted “his and hers” built-in wardrobes, double doors extending out to the balcony deck and a cleverly-revamped ensuite bathroom, comprising of a toilet, shower and a modern free-standing bathtub.

Downstairs and right next door to the upgraded laundry sits a versatile fourth bedroom-come-teenager’s retreat with a study area, a huge walk-in robe, a powder room, split-system air-conditioning and a series of sublime double French doors that lead outside to lovely terraced gardens with rock walls, a brick courtyard area that is ideal for quiet contemplation, verandah and pergola entertaining spaces and a feature waterfall. Helping complete this unique package are a tandem double lock-up garage with roller doors, ample storage options (for bikes and other toys) and an under-croft workshop, a splendid winter creek running through the property and a separate 25sqm (approx.) rear cabin with its own surrounding balcony deck that works well as either a studio or home office, consisting of split-system air-conditioning, low-maintenance flooring, network cabling and one of the most desirable aspects imaginable.

When you’re not strolling through the meandering paths bordering the house or absorbing the awe-inspiring tree-lined views through the large picture windows found within, you will surely be taking full advantage of a dream location close to a host of national parks, beautiful Mundaring, Midland, our famous Swan Valley and its array of fine wineries and restaurants, Perth Airport and even the city, which is only just over 30 minutes away. This is your escape to serenity!
