68B McMillan Street, Victoria Park

Lovely Private Home in the Heart of Vic Park

Located just moments away from Vic Park, this property offers the convenience of many nearby cafes, takeaway options and bars within walking distance, and also a peaceful locale. This three-bedroom, two-bathroom home is located on a rear block and provides a tranquil sanctuary away from the bustling Vic Park strip.

Built in 1997, and offering 127sqm of internal living space, you'll love the open plan living and dining area opening out into the garden. With the warmer months upon us, you'll be entertaining outdoors in no time at all.

Situated at the heart of the home, the gourmet kitchen features an engineered stone benchtop, loads of storage including overhead cupboards, an induction cooktop, space for a microwave, a double sink and under-bench seating.

Neatly presented throughout, and with minimal maintenance required, your furnishings will fit right in so all you need to do is to move in and enjoy this incredible location. All three bedrooms are generous and include built-in robes and one has a bay window. With high ceilings and a gabled façade, this brick and iron home pays homage to the many surrounding heritage homes.

While this property would suit downsizers and busy professionals, it would also appeal to small families as you're in the Victoria Park Primary School and Kent Street Senior High School catchment areas, with easy access to Curtin University. There are several nearby bus routes and parks, including John Macmillan Park where the farmers markets run on Sunday mornings.

Given the low-maintenance appeal of this home as well as its prime Vic Park location, this would make a great investment property to add to your portfolio. An incredible lifestyle awaits so register your interest with Ken Yan today - 0488 886 698 or Ken@xceedre.com.au
