Location is a major plus of this sprawling family home situated in one of Perth's most in demand northern suburb locales.

Positioned within 2kms or less of five primary schools, plus many secondary schools, this home has been immaculately maintained and presents as warm family home ready to welcome a new generation.

Set on a large 697 square metre block, there is a big pool and no shortage of backyard space for children to play. Entertaining beneath the pitched pergola is sure to be popular over the coming warmer months.

This charming home boasts 176 square metres of living space, which includes four generously sized bedrooms with built-in robes, and two bathrooms. There is also a formal lounge and dining area, as well as a family room with a high ceiling and exposed beams. Its well-maintained original features include tiled floors, high wood beamed ceilings, an abundance of natural light, feature brick walls and a breakfast bar in the kitchen.

You will be hard-pressed to find another property of this size and quality in this popular suburb, so make sure you register your interest by contacting Tibor Kiss, of Xceed Real Estate, on 0412 200 188.
