Families will love this spacious four-bedroom, two-bathroom home located less than a five-minute drive to the beach. You can move in today and be frolicking at the beach tomorrow – there's absolutely no work to do on this 2004 brick and iron property.

Family living was in mind when this house was designed, with the master bedroom at the front of the home situated opposite the formal lounge/theatre room. The remaining three bedrooms are in their own wing and the spacious open plan living and dining area is the perfect spot for family and friends to come together.

Alfresco dining beneath the pitched patio will become second nature, especially within the easy-care garden with a lawn framed by pencil pines, which are so established they can even be admired from the front yard.
