Coastal Living with Something for Everyone

On the cusp of Sorrento and just five minutes away from WA's turquoise coast, this three-bedroom, one-bathroom duplex offers a wonderful lifestyle. Featuring a spacious floorplan and plenty of outdoor entertaining, downsizers, young families and busy professionals can simply move in and enjoy this desirable location.

Built in 1985, this brick and tile property has been beautifully renovated with an updated bathroom and a new kitchen with stone countertops and stainless appliances. The kitchen flows into the dining room and formal lounge, which has room for a study nook. Another lovely feature is that the master bedroom has direct access to the patio – the perfect spot for a bit of downtime.

Outdoors, the backyard features a paved patio perfect for dining and lounging, a gazebo and plenty of room for the kids and pets to run around on the lawn.

Set on an elevated block, this property is situated at the end of a cul-de-sac offering fantastic views over the neighbourhood, especially from the front balcony sweeping across the living areas.

Many buyers move to the area not only to be close to our world-class
