25 Aristrade Avenue, Kallaroo

Coastal Trifecta for Space, Versatility and Location!

If you're looking for a great value family home in Perth's northern coastal corridor, it's hard to imagine a better match than this spacious five-bedroom, three-bathroom beauty.

Occupying a sprawling 847sqm elevated block in the heart of desirable Kallaroo, the property is both beautifully designed and superbly positioned close to fantastic beaches and every imaginable local amenity. Perfect for larger or growing families where space is a priority, the unique layout features a defined accommodation wing and three separate living areas to cover work, relaxation and play!

Equally as impressive as the residence's presentation is its versatility - perfect for all ages and stages, including multi-generational. The cleverly designed configuration allows for self-contained areas if required, including a potential teen retreat or space for older parents.

At the heart of the home, you'll find the U-shaped kitchen with a central island, plenty of bench space and ample storage. You have the choice of formal dining or a casual meals area - or take your entertaining outside any time of year, beneath the phenomenal pitched alfresco. The huge wraparound lawn area will provide hours of play for kids and pets alike, with easy-care reticulated gardens allowing more time to enjoy this exceptional lifestyle!

There's also a study with a built-in desk and cabinetry - ideal for kids with homework or home-based professionals - ducted reverse-cycle air conditioning, quality window treatments and floor coverings throughout, and
