

Unit 135, 51 Beach St, Fremantle

Industrial Modern Living by the Harbour

Situated within the highly regarded New York style 'Heirloom' complex, awaits this stunning 2-bedroom, 2-bathroom urban apartment located in the heart of Fremantle. Originally known as the 'Dalgety & Co Woolstores', this historic building has been beautifully restored whilst featuring stunning Fremantle Harbour views. Exposed jarrah timber beams, stunning 3.6m high ceilings & restored brickwork offer a feel for both heritage and industrial living.

The huge open plan living area features a stunning modern kitchen with stone bench tops, quality appliances and lots of storage. The living area boasts brand new hybrid flooring, reverse cycle air-conditioning and large windows which plays host to a substantial amount of natural light throughout the property. Floor to ceiling glass doors will take you through to your very own exclusive sun room with stunning views to the harbour, it is the perfect oasis to relax and read a book.

Through to the master bedroom you are welcomed into a huge light n' bright room with a modern colour scheme which complements the exposed timber beams and floor to ceiling windows looking out to a picturesque view of the harbour and sun room. The master also features a matte black ceiling fan, reverse cycle air-conditioning and modern ensuite with stone vanity and marble splashback.
