Affordable Coastal Living

Set within the pristine Peel Region and within walking distance of the Mandurah city centre and foreshore, the location of this three-bedroom, two-bathroom home is superb. Not only are there outstanding restaurants, bars, cafes and shops a stroll away, but this region is rich in nature, culture, water sports and waterside living, not to mention the expansive Peel-Harvey Estuary, which is twice the size of Sydney Harbour and teems with dolphins.

How fortunate, then this home offers the ultimate lock-and-leave lifestyle, allowing the next owner to indulge in kilometres of beaches along the pristine coastline. Or you could spend your days boating, crabbing, fishing, wandering through towering jarrah forests, hanging out with the magical Giants hand-crafted from timber by Danish artist Thomas Dambo or exploring the nearby Geographe Wine Region.

Just an hour south of Perth, this low-maintenance brick and tile home features open-plan living and dining, a modern kitchen and good-sized rooms.

Set in on a peaceful triplex 272 sqm block with street frontage, a pretty courtyard at the front of the home offers additional living and entertaining space. This walled garden adorned with climbing shrubs provides a private spot and paved patio accessed from the living room.

With its laid-back lifestyle, this region is a drawcard for downsizers and families looking for affordable living near the coast. Across the Mandurah Bridge on the Western Foreshore, you'll find many sporting facilities, including golf, playgrounds, a skate park and walking trails. You can easily walk to the SMYL Community College and Mandurah Central Shopping Centre. You're a short distance from Dudley Park Primary School, Mandurah Catholic College, Mandurah Forum Shopping Centre and Kwillena Gabi Pool, a natural circular pool on the Eastern Foreshore South Precinct.

Mandurah has excellent transport links via the nearby Kwinana Freeway and Mandurah Train Station and the heart of Perth's CBD is only an hour. Not that you'll need to head into the big smoke often as Mandurah has everything you could possibly need.

A wonderful lifestyle awaits alongside a lucrative investment as this home will rent out in a flash. Please don't hesitate to contact Joe da Mata on 0406 237 964 to arrange a viewing today.
