6 Anderton Street, Ellenbrook

On the Cusp of the Swan Valley

First-home buyers, downsizers and growing families won't resist the exceptional value offered by this four-bedroom, two-bathroom home. Just a stroll away from the Anne Hamersley Primary School, Yatheroo Park and Annies Landing, with a playground and walking trails, you're situated on the cusp of the Swan Valley.

In a quiet pocket of Ellenbrook, this spacious home presents a tranquil and convenient lifestyle. There's absolutely no work required here with the modern kitchen and bathrooms - this is move-in ready and perfect for investors to reap the benefits of their investment from day one.

The clever design makes the most of the space with a sunny formal lounge at the front of the home, which could easily function as a home office or studio. The spacious open-plan living and dining area flows out to alfresco dining on a decked patio within a fully-enclosed rear garden, perfect for the little ones to play freely.

Ellenbrook Secondary College and Swan Valley Anglican Community College are nearby, as well as two shopping and dining precincts at Primewest Brooklane and Ellenbrook Central, plus a thriving town centre. The Vines Golf Course and the many attractions of the Swan Valley beckon with wineries, restaurants, galleries and tourist attractions.

With nearby arterial roads such as Gnangara Road, West Swan Road, Tonkin Highway, Reid Highway and Great Northern Highway, and the train line opening in 2024, you can be at the Perth Airport and CBD in less than 30 minutes.
