

11 Devonshire Street, Morley

Under offer/Home open cancelled

Situated on a low-maintenance 329 sqm block, this much-loved double-storey four-bedroom, two-bathroom home offers space and convenience in a tranquil pocket of Morley. Imagine the peaceful lifestyle you could lead having Arbor Park a stroll away where the whole family can enjoy the playground, walking paths and a nature discovery trail.

You'll love the lofty ceilings in the spacious open-plan living and dining area flowing out to undercover alfresco dining in an easy-care courtyard with an outdoor kitchen. The flexible floorplan features a formal lounge with a timber-lined ceiling at the front of the home, which could easily function as a home office. With three bedrooms upstairs and the primary bedroom downstairs with an ensuite, this home offers plenty of separation, particularly for multi-generational families.

This spacious home also offers the potential to add some upgrades while enhancing the value in the process. The current tenants are happy to stay on, presenting a ready-made investment in convenient Morley, which will soon become even more lucrative with the new Morley Train Station opening in 2024, delivering you to the airport and Perth's CBD in moments.

From this central address, you can walk to Beechboro Central Shopping Centre and it's just a short distance from Charlie's Fresh Food Market and Galleria Shopping Centre. Several nearby schools include Hampton Senior High School, Hampton Park Primary School and Good Shepherd Catholic
