Family-Friendly Location with Parkside Views

Ideally located opposite peaceful parklands, this property offers your chance to invest in a popular and family-friendly area on the doorstep of great schools, nature reserves and stunning northern beaches.

The three-bedroom, two-bathroom single-level dwelling offers first home buyers a great opportunity to enjoy an outdoorsy lifestyle while still only being a 30-minute drive to Perth's CBD. Likewise, savvy investors will note the value of such a safe and welcoming area that's close to fantastic amenities. In great condition and with an elevated façade, this modern and low-maintenance property features a study, tiled flooring in the main living areas and carpet in the bedrooms, secure screen doors and recessed lighting throughout.

The generous main bedroom has a clear outlook towards leafy Ashbourne Park and a modern ensuite with shower and WC. Family life in this beautiful home centres around the kitchen, which you'll find equipped with a dishwasher, stainless steel cooking appliances, a double sink, pantry and a long breakfast bar. There's also reverse-cycle air conditioning serving the adjacent living and dining areas.

Outside is a paved courtyard and/or an extra parking space, and you'll love being able to watch the kids play in the park over the road from the sheltered front terrace. Minutes away are public and private primary and senior schools, Neerabup Nature Reserve and Quinn's Rock Beach, local shopping centres, cafés and Wanneroo Road. Slightly further south is the Mindarie Marina, with a fantastic selection of shopping, dining and lifestyle amenities. Young families will love the child-friendly community, ease of access to
