

Tranquil Family Living Meets Coastal Convenience

Privately set back from the street, amidst a flourishing canopy of birdlife-attracting trees, this charming brick residence blending perfect fusion of nature, lifestyle, and potential as a peaceful retreat with thoughtful updates. Ideal for families seeking both tranquility and room to grow, the home sits on a generous 756sqm block with a split-level backyard ready for your creative vision—whether it's a pool, studio, or native garden oasis, this home caters to evolving needs.

A majestic spotted gum tree graces the front garden, acting as a natural bird magnet and adding to the home's unique connection with nature. This feature makes the home especially appealing to those who value peaceful, leafy surroundings.

Built in the 1970s and tastefully renovated over the years, this three-bedroom, two-bathroom residence retains character-rich elements like a sunken lounge and arched doorways while embracing modern updates. Original exposed bricks have been painted white to freshen the interiors, complementing contemporary enhancements such as new floor coverings, updated bathrooms, and modernised electrical wiring.

The kitchen has been stylishly updated with black subway tile splashbacks, stone benchtops, stainless steel appliances, and a practical breakfast bar. Thoughtfully designed for day-to-day ease, the kitchen and dining area is set apart from the main living area - keeping cooking smell and mess contained
