FLEXIBLE LIVING OPTIONS: TWO HOUSES IN ONE!

Perfectly positioned for convenience and lifestyle, this Morley property sits on a generous 700m block with a newly built house at the rear, offering options aplenty. Whether you're a growing family, seeking multigenerational living choices, wanting to utilise your rear house for return on investment such as Airbnb etc or looking to subdivide for a separate title, this property offers independence, privacy and flexibility for dual living arrangements in one of Perth's most bustling neighbourhoods. Rental appraisal for both houses is estimated to be around $1,500 per week.

A functional floor plan with spacious surrounds, the main home features four bedrooms with built-in robes and timber-style flooring and two bathrooms, including an ensuite off the main bedroom. An open plan living, kitchen and dining room offers the ideal, central space for families to come together, with the well-appointed kitchen providing everything the modern chef requires. Extra room is yours with another large living room at the front of the home, offering further flexibility while a generous paved, undercover, outdoor space shelters you from the elements and offers a great zone for year-round alfresco dining, BBQs and relaxation. Parking is a breeze too with a single carport and plenty of paved parking at the front of the home.

The separate brand new three-bedroom dwelling at the rear of the block is the jewel in the crown here - fully self-contained and separate from the main house, this is ideal for elderly parents, a teenage retreat, a guest house, or to rent out as a separate home entirely. With its own access and single carport,
