The Ultimate Inner-City Investment

Imagine having everything you need within walking distance from your front door. This two-bedroom apartment satisfies the inner-city living dream in spades with Northbridge, Mt Lawley, East Perth and Perth's CBD only a stroll away. You might be in the heart of all the action, yet this top-floor apartment offers plenty of peace and the best of both worlds.

Featuring two bedrooms, both with ensuite bathrooms and balcony access, and open-plan living with a modern kitchen, this is the ultimate in low-maintenance living for a range of buyers.

Immaculately presented throughout with new timber flooring and a fresh paint job, out-of-towners and FIFO workers will love the nearby train and freeway connections to the Perth Airport. While hospital workers will appreciate the stroll from the Royal Perth Hospital after their shift. Those students about to be the first to attend the brand-new Edith Cowan University, opening in 2026, will find this location hard to beat. This is also a premium option for city workers seeking a short commute into Perth's CBD without the hefty parking fees.

Alternatively, this is an economical way for a couple of friends to pool their resources and get on the property ladder in a central location.

The investment potential is a no-brainer, whether you're buying it for yourself or as a new addition to your property portfolio.
