Urban living and vistas galore

Imagine being able to stroll to Northbridge and Mount Lawley's many delights from your front door? Or walking into the city without incurring hefty parking fees. You'll have Perth at your feet with this two-bedroom, two-bathroom apartment.

You'll find it difficult to take your eyes off the view from the moment you arrive. From your open-plan living and dining room, you'll be drawn to the generous balcony spanning the length of the entire apartment. You won't even need a TV with those incredible urban vistas and Perth's iconic city skyline.

Just think of all the entertaining you can do from here, and as it's undercover, this balcony offers year-round fun and relaxation.

The primary bedroom includes an ensuite, meaning the second bedroom has exclusive access to the second bathroom, which is perfect for a small family, a couple, professionals or friends. The investment potential is lucrative given its proximity to the city, and ideal for FIFO workers and out-of-towners looking to rent one of the bedrooms. This is also a great option for students at Edith Cowan University's new city campus or medical staff at Royal Perth Hospital.

The sky's the limit, and the potential is as limitless as those panoramic views. This modern apartment complex features resort-style facilities, including a
