Flexible City Living with Elevated Views – 50sqm Opportunity in Prime East Perth

Discover a modern inner-city retreat in the heart of East Perth within the well-regarded Bey Apartments complex. Positioned on the ninth floor with elevated city views, this cleverly designed apartment offers approximately 50sqm of internal living space and delivers exceptional flexibility, convenience and strong investment appeal.

One of the standout features of this property is its unique and highly functional floorplan. The apartment is designed with two separate living zones positioned on either side of the central kitchen and bathroom, creating a versatile layout that can comfortably function as a one-bedroom apartment with two living areas, or alternatively be utilised as two bedroom spaces when needed. This flexible design maximises the usability of the space and makes it particularly attractive for tenants and owner-occupiers seeking practicality in a city location.

From its ninth-floor position, the apartment enjoys pleasant elevated views towards the Perth city skyline, allowing natural light to flow through the living areas and creating a bright and welcoming urban environment.

The functional kitchenette includes electric cooking, while the open living and dining space provides a comfortable setting for everyday living.

For investors, this property represents a compelling high-yield opportunity
