A Villa That Lives Bigger Than Expected

Beautifully renovated and offering a floorplan that feels far larger than expected, this impressive villa combines modern finishes, generous proportions and an effortless lifestyle in one of Tuart Hill's most convenient locations.

Whether you're stepping into the market, downsizing or adding a quality investment to your portfolio, this is a home where all the hard work has already been done.

From the moment you arrive, the sense of space is immediately apparent. The oversized living room is bathed in natural light and provides a comfortable retreat to relax or entertain, while warm bamboo flooring, neutral tones and split-system air conditioning create a welcoming atmosphere throughout.

Beyond the feature archways, the renovated kitchen is both stylish and highly functional. Crisp white cabinetry, expansive bench space, subway tiled splashbacks, quality stainless steel appliances and excellent storage combine to create a space that will impress everyday cooks and entertainers alike. The adjoining dining area comfortably accommodates family meals while maintaining an open, connected feel.

Both bedrooms are generously proportioned with mirrored built-in robes, while the modern bathroom and separate laundry continue the home's fresh contemporary appeal. The laundry offers direct access to a private paved courtyard, creating the perfect outdoor space for entertaining, pets or simply enjoying a quiet morning coffee.

Adding even more practicality is a secure undercover car bay together with the bonus of an additional parking space at the rear of the complex, a feature seldom found in homes of this style.

Positioned just moments from Robinson Reserve, Main Street's thriving café and dining precinct, schools, shopping centres and public transport, you'll also enjoy easy access to the Mitchell Freeway, Perth CBD and some of Perth's best beaches.

Move straight in, unpack and start enjoying everything this beautifully renovated home has to offer.
