15/15 Aberdeen Street is a two bedroom apartment with a practical open plan layout, a private balcony and everything set up for everyday living. The living and dining area connects directly to the balcony through wide sliding glass doors, while the kitchen is neatly integrated into the space with plenty of cabinetry and a breakfast bar. Both bedrooms have built in mirrored wardrobes, and the apartment also includes a dedicated car bay and separate storeroom. Residents can make use of the gym within the complex, adding another convenient feature without needing to leave home.

Features you'll love:

- Open-plan living and dining area with carpet underfoot, a split-system air conditioner and wide sliding glass doors that connect the interior directly to the private balcony.
- Private tiled balcony extending from the living area, with room for a small outdoor table and chairs and an outlook across the surrounding city buildings.

- Well-integrated kitchen with white and light timber-look cabinetry, dark benchtops, stainless steel appliances, oven, cooktop, dishwasher and a breakfast bar that provides additional preparation space and casual seating.
- Two separate carpeted bedrooms, each fitted with mirrored built-in wardrobes that provide practical clothing storage while helping maintain a light, uncluttered feel.
- Bathroom with a wide vanity, useful drawer storage, a large mirror and a glass-enclosed shower, combining practical everyday storage with a clean, neutral finish.
- Dedicated car bay included with the apartment, providing off-street parking for added convenience when living close to the Perth CBD.
- Separate storeroom providing additional space for belongings that do not need to be kept inside the apartment.
- Residents gym located within the complex, offering an on-site option for exercise without needing to travel to an external fitness facility.

Location:

Aberdeen Street sits on the edge of Perth CBD and Northbridge, putting cafes, restaurants, shops and city entertainment within easy reach. Northbridge's dining precinct and cultural attractions are nearby, while Perth Train Station and major bus routes make commuting around the city straightforward. HBF Park is also close by for sporting events and concerts, and Royal Perth Hospital, the State Library and Perth's central shopping streets are accessible from this inner city location. With everyday amenities, public transport and entertainment all nearby, the apartment offers a practical base for enjoying city life without relying on a car for every trip.
