25 Peppermint Crescent, Ballajura

A few quiet drinks at yours ..

Out front nestled behind a full height wall is the below ground pool making use of every square inch of your land. This and the alfresco area will make a few quiet ones at yours the destination of choice.

The Alfresco shelters the back of your home and shuts out the elements with Cafe blinds making the perfect environment for a few quiet drinks and bbq all year round or just a dry play area for the kids.

Inside you've got three very separate living areas with a small study or storage room providing space for all to hide away and do their own thing when the mood takes them.

Both bathrooms and laundry have been renovated to a standard that others envy. With the kitchen renovated in the last five years you will have years in this home without having to spend a cent on the major items. There's still room to improve with some polishing touches needed to restore this home to its finest and profit accordingly.

Solar panels will reduce your power bills giving you more money to enjoy life.

Walking distance from the school in a back street with massive oval if the kids would prefer to kick a ball, near to local IGA and tavern all in leafy north Ballajura there's plenty of reasons for you to move this one to the top of your list.
