69 Marloo Road, Westminster

Adding blue chip to your portfolio.

This 3brm home on an 809sqm block zoned r40 for potential development is located in prime position within The Golden Triangle.

Numerous development options can be canvassed given the prime position such as multi residential apartments or triplexes. One thing you can count on is a prime location means prime profits when it comes time to sell.

If you're planning is more long range then the existing home that my clients grew up in is in original but well maintained condition so tenants will be eager to move in and pay the lion share whilst you ponder the future.
