An Aladdin's Cave

Do not be deceived by the outward appearance of this architect designed residence. Inside this quality home is three stories of superb elegance with many outstanding features.

The property is a three story terrace home on a green title with two street frontage with the advantage of a Mixed Use Zoning which will enable you to work and live from the same premises.

Alternatively the property could be used to maximise a great rental return.

The property was built with style in mind with quality fixtures and fittings throughout rather than a budget and has never been occupied.
